The General Meeting shall be held with the personal representation of shareholders

Conditions for participation and exercising voting rights at the General Meeting

Shareholders may exercise shareholder's rights at the General Meeting either in person or through a duly authorized representative.

- a.) Shareholders participating in person identify themselves with their identity card whereas their ownership is certified through the ownership certificate issued by their custodian. Shareholders registered in the Stock Registry but not being able to present their ownership certificate may participate the General Meeting but may not exercise their voting and proposal rights.
- b.) The proxy shall be set forth in a public instrument or a private document of full probative force. The proxy shall be presented to the representative of the Board of Directors prior to the commencement of the General Meeting. Regarding ownership certificates the provisions of Section a) shall prevail.
- c.) Custodians, registered in the Stock Registry and acting as nominees may act on behalf of the shareholder pursuant to Act CXX of 2001 (Act on Capital Markets).

The condition of exercising voting rights at the General Meeting is that the shareholder or the nominee (except proxy holders acting on the basis of the authorization of the shareholder issued in the form of a public instrument or a private document of full probative force) is registered as such in the Stock Register at least six (6) working days prior to the date of the General Meeting (i.e. latest by 2006, September 29th). The registry of shareholders in the Stock Registry shall be arranged by their respective custodians - on the basis of the relevant assignment of the shareholder. Shareholders are informed by their custodians about the deadline of being registered in the Stock Register. The Company shall not be held liable for the due performance or failure to perform such assignments given to custodians and for the relevant consequences.

We wish to remind our shareholders that the registration will take place from 9.00 a.m. to 10.30. p.m. In the case of registration after the above indicated period the Company may not be held liable if the shareholder (or the proxy) misses part of the General Meeting due to late registry.

If the General Meeting does not have a quorum, the Board of Directors convokes the repeated General Meeting to October 9th, 2006 at 13 p.m. with the same agenda to the above specified place. The repeated General Meeting shall have a quorum irrespective of the number of shareholders/votes being present.
