Payment of interim dividends may be resolved upon the proposal of the Board of Directors. The consent of the Supervisory Board is required to such proposal of the Board of Directors.

If according to the annual financial statements prepared after the distribution of interim dividends there was no justification for the payment of dividends, such distribution must be returned by the shareholders when so requested by the Company.

The expected costs shall be covered by the requesting shareholders. The Court of Registration shall refuse the request in the event of abuse of minority rights by the shareholders presenting the request. The Company's Statutory Auditor may not be appointed to carry out such special audits. The costs of the audit shall be advanced and borne by the Company. The Company shall be able to charge the costs upon the shareholder affected if requesting the audit was manifestly unfounded.

If the General Meeting of the Company has refused - or did not present for decision - a motion to enforce a claim against a shareholder, members of the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Board or against the Statutory Auditor of the Company, any one shareholder or shareholders controlling at least one per cent of the votes may move within a 30-day preclusive period calculated from the General Meeting to enforce such claim themselves on behalf and for the benefit of the Company.
