The orientation program includes comprehensive information about the Company's business and operations, general information about the Board of Directors and its committees, including a summary of Board of Directors member compensation and benefits and a review of director duties and responsibilities.

15.2. The Board of Directors maintains a continuing education program for all members of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors recognizes the importance of continuing education for its members and is committed to provide such education in order to improve the performance of the Board of Directors. It is the responsibility of the Chairman of the Board of Directors to advise the members of the Board of Directors about their continuing education, including relevant leading-edge corporate governance issues. Members of the Board of Directors are encouraged to participate in continuing Board of Directors member education programs.

16. Prohibition on loans to members of the Board of Directors

It is the policy of the Company not to make any personal loans to its members of the Board of Directors and to employees (chief executive officer and chief officers) whose employer is the Board of Directors.

17. Annual Evaluation of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall perform an annual comprehensive self-evaluation of its performance. This self-evaluation should include a review of the Board of Directors' contribution as a whole and also its individual members and should specifically review areas in which the Board of Directors believes a better contribution could be made. Its purpose is to increase the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall meet annually to discuss the results of this critical self-evaluation.

18. Prevailing language

The Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors shall be approved in the Hungarian and English languages, in case of doubt the English version shall prevail.

19. Miscellaneous

- 19.1. Within fifteen days of accepting a new executive office, the member of the Board of Directors shall notify in writing any other company in which he/she already serves as an executive officer or a supervisory board member. The member of the Board of Directors shall inform the Supervisory Board, if he/she receives an offer of Board of Directors or Supervisory Board membership or an offer of an executive management position in a company which is not part of the Company group and also if he/she accepted the offer.
- 19.2. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for notifying the court of registry concerning any amendment of the Articles of Association, the rights, facts and data contained in the register of companies and changes therein, as well as any other data required by law. Members of the Board of Directors shall bear joint and several liability toward the Company for any damage resulting from the incorrectness of the data, rights or facts notified, or from any delay in filing or failure to file the notification, including where the annual report prescribed in the Accounting Act and the relating business report is drawn up and published not in compliance with the relevant provisions of the Accounting Act.
- 19.3. The members of the Board of Directors shall treat all business secrets (Civil Code, Section 81) of the Company as strictly confidential.
- 19.4. The members of the Board of Directors shall conduct the management of the business association with due care and diligence as generally expected from persons in such positions and – unless otherwise provided in the act – give priority to the interests of the Company. The members of the Board of Directors shall be liable to the business association in accordance with the general rules of civil law for damages caused by any infringement of the law or any breach of the Articles of Association, the resolutions of the General Meeting or their management obligations.

Enclosure:
