Magyar Telekom rejects the unfounded rumors

Budapest – 16 December, 2009 – Magyar Telekom (Reuters: NYSE: MTA.N, BÉT: MTEL.BU and Bloomberg: NYSE: MTA US, BÉT: MTELEKOM HB), the leading Hungarian telecommunications service provider today announces that it rejects and denies as unfounded the rumors and allegations published today in online news portal Portfolio.hu about a surmised change in the company's CEO position.

Christopher Mattheisen continues to serve as the company's Chairman and CEO in full accordance with his contract due to expire in December 2011.

Magyar Telekom is investigating, in accordance with the capital market regulations applicable to it under US and Hungarian law, who is responsible for the publication of incorrect information capable of influencing the price of Magyar Telekom shares.
